Crush Kaiserism with Americanism; Register Now!

WAR'S GREATEST BATTLE LOOMING

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—Behind the apparent lull in the battle in France, events are shaping for operations of crucial importance, in the opinion of officials. They believe a week's time will see either the greatest battle of the war in progress along the old Hindenburg line or the enemy in full retreat. There is now little doubt that it was lack of fighting effectiveness that forced the Germans to abandon all he had gained in his drive of this year and narrow his front. Unofficial estimates from the German front say the Germans have left behind them during the withdrawal more than 300,000 prime fighting men, heavily wounded or prisoners. This in addition to the heavy losses in the frontal attacks by which the enemy in the summer drove his way toward Paris and the channel ports.

With such losses and American troops pouring into France at the rate of 200,000 a month, it would be a surprise, officers say, if the German leaders have been compelled to fix upon a much shorter front than the Hindenburg line.

Unofficial reports from Dunkirk indicate that the preparations to evacuate Douai, the northern corner of the Hindenburg arch in France, are well advanced. The Allied airmen also are said to have seen many airdromes and aviation stations fifteen miles beyond Douai being hastily evacuated of heavy machinery. From other sources come reports that the civilian populations of the towns in German hands in this area are being driven out, a step which always precedes a withdrawal by the enemy.

There is little doubt in the minds of officers here that Douai could be held only at great cost if the British went forward to take it.

BOLSHEVIKI IN FLIGHT.

Prograd Burning,
People Slain.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 11.—The Daily Express claims to have unquestionable information that the former Empress of Russia and her four daughters have been murdered by Bolsheviks. The paper prints the following:

"The Express understands from a source which is beyond doubt that the Empress of Russia and her four daughters have been murdered by Bolsheviks. The whole immediate family of the late Czar have thus been exterminated."

"It is further understood that the Dowager Empress, who with her daughter and son-in-law, the Duke of Oldenburg, has been staying at Wladimir, was recently attacked by Red Guards, who sought to kill all three. Sailors of the Black Sea fleet intervened and fought the Red Guards."

"For a full fortnight the fight continued until the Red Guards were beaten. It is now understood that the Dowager Empress is safe."

Family of Late Czar Wiped Out

RUSSIA PASSES THROUGH TWO MONTHS OF HORROR.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

STOCKHOLM, Tuesday, Sept. 10.—July and August were months of horror which never will be forgotten by persons who watched Russia's two great cities—Petrograd and Moscow—pass through the mad attempt of the Bolsheviks to shoot or imprison all persons who disagreed with their wild efforts to control crumbling European Russia. September probably will be worse, for the opposition parties are gaining in strength through desperation.

The lives of the non-Bolsheviks are unsafe everywhere in Russia. The Bolsheviks are forcing unwilling subjects to take up arms against the ruthless persecution of the so-called commissions for the suppression of a counter-revolution, which shoot down the bourgeoisie by the hundred. Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik Minister of War, evidently determined that his dictatorship of the proletariat will not repeat the history of the former provisional government and fall through being too merciful.

Dr. Premier Kerensky refused to impose the death penalty and his government fell almost without the loss of a life, but observers of the Russian political situation say that no such bloodless end can come to the Soviet republic. It has given no quarter and it will receive none. Premier Lenin and War Minister Trotsky, Sverdlov, president of the Central Executive Committee, and other Bolshevik leaders, realize this, and they doubtless will fight as long as a single soldier remains loyal to them.

Trotsky has said in his speeches that Moscow will be reduced to ashes before it is surrendered. Yaroslavl, a town on the Volga, 160 miles northeast of Moscow, was burned for resisting Bolshevik domination, and Volodga, 110 miles north of Yaroslavl, is reported to have suffered the same fate.

Night has been hideous in Moscow for months because of the volleys from execution squads in the solitary inclosures where prisoners are kept. Foreigners and Russians alike were searched without warning, and the Red Guards marched through the streets with such regularity that pedestrians hardly noticed them.

Marie Spiridonova, a social revolutionary leader, charged in her memorable speech made before the all-Russian Soviet Congress at Moscow on July 4 that Bolshevik rule was more tyrannical than that of the late Emperor, and the reign of terror had scarcely begun at that time.

Dr. Karl Helfferich, the German Ambassador at Moscow, rushed back to Berlin and reported to his government that Moscow was in such a state of anarchy that the embassy could not stay there, and he is alleged to have advised a discontinuance of diplomatic relations with the Soviet power.

There is little wonder that Ambassador Helfferich had such an impression. Two attempts were made on his life while he was in Moscow. This is the first news to come out of Russia of attempt being made against the life of the new German Ambassador at Moscow. His predecessor, Count von Mirbach, was assassinated.

Shots were heard everywhere; day and night.

MEDILL M'CORMICK BEATS THOMPSON.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—Medill McCormick was nominated for Senator by Republicans in yesterday's primary by a plurality of 62,000 over Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago, on the basis of returns from 184 out of 293 precincts outside of Cook county and all but 321 precincts in Chicago.

McCormick's plurality outside of Chicago, it is indicated, is 27,000, while Thompson's lead in the city is 40,000, with less than one-third of the normal vote polled.

Second Great Mobilization of Man Power Covers the Nation Today.

Thirteen Million Men to List
Names in Defiance to Germanism.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—America's second great mobilization of man power will begin today when approximately 13,000,000 men between the ages of 18 and 45, inclusive, will register for military service under the amended selective draft law.

The registrars are at their posts awaiting you," said Provost-Marshal-General Crowder in a statement tonight, addressed to the men of the country who are designated to respond to the nation's call for duty.

"The obligation resting on the individual this day is clear cut and not to be mistaken," the Provost-Marshal-General's statement continued. "The patriotism and the honor of our manhood furnish the main reliance of the nation at this hour. Patriots will not fail to respond. Slackers must respond."

Tomorrow's registration will practically complete an enrollment or census of the country's available man power for war inasmuch as all citizens between the ages of 18 and 45 years of age will have been on record when the day is done.

Ten million between 21 and 30 years of age inclusive registered on June 5, 1917, and another million men who have attained the age of 31 years since that time have registered subsequently. When tomorrow's registration is over, it is estimated there will be on record for the selective draft approximately 23,000,000 men.

Tonight the War Department advised that everything was in readiness for tomorrow's registration. Telegrams have been received from every State and from every one of the local boards and registration districts stating that preparations have been completed.

Registrants in every locality, said an official statement will be at their posts at 7 o'clock in the morning and will remain continuously on duty until 9 o'clock tomorrow night. It only remains for those required to register to do their part.

GREGORY FAVORABLE SLACKER RAID

To Continue Round-up of Less Presidents Objects

Condemns Use of Soldiers and Sailors in New York

Fifty Thousand Draft Dodgers Apprehended, He Says

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—The use of soldiers and sailors in the "slacker round-up" in New York is contrary to law, according to Gen. Gregory in a letter to President Wilson.

Gen. Gregory in a letter to President Wilson, ordered to the contrary by the War Department, would continue to three days for slacker.

Soldiers and sailors and members of the American Legion were charged with the round-up, said Gregory, and the Attorney-General, representing the Department of Justice, would not permit the use of military force.

added, however, that he was not sure they had been let loose by the police.

Mr. Gregory, who was writing to a request from the War Department for all the facts in connection with the round-up, said an investigation convinced him that the use of military force was not justified.

He said the employment of members of the military force in private organizations in making arrests was "ill judged."

He requested a committee of persons, who on the one hand would be able to make a list of persons who had been arrested, and on the other hand would be able to make a list of persons who had been released.

The Attorney-General said "thousands upon thousands" of persons are at large in the country and that it is impossible to apprehend all of them.

He said the results of the round-up in New York and New Jersey, 1918, were as follows:

of 68,277 apprehended in New York, 1918, were as follows:

MIDDIES OUT FOR FOOTBALL.

Balboa Park Camp has Team of Former Collegians.

Military and Naval Eleven will be Taken On.

Southerners on Trail of the Mare Island Bunch.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

NAVAL TRAINING CAMP (Balboa Park) San Diego, Sept. 11.—More than sixty-five enlisted men stationed at the naval training camp, Balboa Park, have answered the clarion call of football and reported for their first workout.

The squad is under the direction of Gunnar Linthwaite, who coached the champion training camp team last season which, after playing twelve games, won the local military championship from Camp Kearny on New Year's Day.

A number of former college and high school stars were among those who reported for practice, and there seems to be enough material for Coach Linthwaite to develop an exceptionally strong eleven.

Among some of the stars are Richard Johnson, former Carleton quarterback; N. J. Mewes, who played with St. Vincent's College team in the East; Brackenbury, former University of Arizona fullback and star navy player; and last season, and Ratcliff, who played with the team last season.

The first day's workout consisted mostly of getting used to handling the ball and the men were divided into squads of ten and ordered to practice passing and punting. The style of practice was kept up for about two weeks and then Coach Linthwaite plans to divide the men into two squads and begin scrimmaging.

At present there are no names in sight, although attempts have been made to bring northern military and university eleven here for games.

It is hoped that the strong Mare Island eleven will be able to make a trip here this season for games, and an attempt is being made to bring them here for the New Year's attraction.

Some of the men who have been reported for practice are W. B. Hendrix, S. E. Page, Clifford H. Wall, C. C. Perry, John W. Lindstrom, I. Shee, D. L. McDonald, J. C. Thompson, H. B. Suggs, J. C. Taylor, J. Weinberg, N. J. Mewes, R. W. Johnson, R. H. Hoff, E. F. McFarlane, C. O. Love, H. M. Shepard, R. Edgar, E. V. Holland, Wall, F. S. Lyon, V. D. Nevin, J. J. Larlor, F. F. Foster, R. A. WOUNDED AND SORE.

McNinn, anxious to keep the ball rolling, got an infield hit, but White, in a gallant effort to drive home the run, was thrown out, Hollister to Merkle to Deal.

The next inning, the Cubs wound and sore, went after victory like a maniac in a wild. The first man up was Flack, overhauling with rage at himself for his unfortunate mug, and he vented a heavy percentage of his spite one of the balls that Flack kept curving about his knees. The ball went screaming over second for second base hit. Hollister did his duty by tapping a low roller to McNinn for a sacrifice, Flack having ample time to reach first.

Mays, putting on an extra head of steam, shot in a fast, low one on the inside corner, and Flack, who was too far inside and hid Mann in the leg with a terrific thump. The husky outfielder dropped the ball, and Flack pulled he limped to first.

Flack, exhibiting some of his fancy sharpshooting around the bases, Schang, watching Mann taking a fly, after a whipping finish in which he finished a nose ahead of the Jones pair. The third heat, which was fast enough to equal the former mark, was won by Jones after one of the most sensational battles of the week's programme. The record heat by quarters was 1:31; 1:05 1-4; 1:28; and 2:10 1-4.

Tom Murphy's horses, Oro Fino, and Budlight, finished first and second in the 2:12 class pace for $1000. The first heat was paced in 2:03 3-4. Murphy won first money with Hal Roy in the 2:04 pace, finishing last in the opening heat. The first and second heats went in 2:04 1-4. Dodge drove a splendid race to win the opening event on the card with Hollywood Bob. Best time, 2:05 1-4.

MAYS, UNDERHAND ARTIST, IS THE WINNING HURLER.

Whiteman, Newcomer in World Series Games, Hero of Closing Contest.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

BOSTON, Sept. 11.—Taps for professional baseball for the duration of the war was sounded at Fenway Park today when the Boston American League pennant bearers won the first war-scarred baseball championship of the world by defeating the Chicago National League titleholders in the sixth game of the series by a score of 2 to 1. This gives the Red Sox a record of six victories for the overlordship of the baseball world in as many starts, and as the Boston Nationals won the championship in 1914, it brings to this city six world's titles in which National and American teams figured without one blot on the escutcheon.

These figures do not include games played previous to 1903, when the American and National world series games were inaugurated. Previous to that, in 1894, 1895, 1896 and 1897 the post-season world series games were called the Temple Cup series. In 1898, 1899, 1900, 1901 and 1902 there were no world series games, but as far back as 1884 the National League and American Association played post-season games to decide the supremacy.

Blond Carl Mays of the underhand delivery was the winning pitcher, while George Tyler, one of the Cubs' stellar left-handers, and Flack, Chicago's right fielder, who has been playing such a brilliant game, must bear between them much of the burden of defeat.

The momentary wavering of the hard-clawed Cubs in this third inning gave the Red Sox their one big opportunity, which they seized with characteristic keenness. Tyler, after the inherent right of southpaw, indulged in a brief fit of wildness.

He passed Mays, the first man up, N. J. Mewes, who played with St. Vincent's College team in the East; Brackenbury, former University of Arizona fullback and star navy player; and last season, and Ratcliff, who played with the team last season.

Hooper was put out at first, however, Dave Shean, one of the most patient waiters for free transportation to first in the series, was also passed. Two men were on and only one out when Amos Strunk came to bat and sent a very bad bounce to Pick at second base. Pick had his pitcher caught not took a clear second in time to head off Mays.

PREPARE FOR HIGH DIVING.

Championship Events Take Place Saturday.

Divers and Middies Down to Take Part.

Women's Race will be an Added Feature.

With the men's national high-diving championship as the principal feature a great programme of events will be held at San Pedro next Saturday under the auspices of the Naval Training Station and the Los Angeles Athletic Club. This meet should be a great boon to aquatics at the camps at San Pedro as it will be the first to be held there since the establishment of naval camps in the south.

The Los Angeles Athletic Club Swimming Committee headed by Les Henry will have charge of the high-diving championship, as that event was awarded to the club by the National Championship Committee, but the balance of the programme will be under the auspices of the athletic officers of the Naval Training Station.

One entry has been received to date from the Naval Training Station and another is expected from that source. One has been sent in from the Submarine Base and one from the Los Angeles Athletic Club. The Olympic Club of San Francisco is going to try and get back on the diving map by sending a competitor to take the laurels back to San Francisco that have been the property of the south for the past four or five years.

A women's fifty-yard race will probably be added to the already planned events. There are four or five great girl swimmers in the south and Vance Velt will be on hand with the best of the Los Angeles Athletic Club has in the aquatic line. Velt can always be depended upon to have enough performers on hand to make a good show.

The events will all be free to the public and will be held in close proximity to the Naval Training Station at San Pedro.

SHOOT DEER IN SAW-PIT CANYON.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

MENTONE, Sept. 11.—The deer hunters of this section have had poor luck this year, although a few of them have made good their claim. When they knew where the big bucks were to be found, George Coe and Norman Cooley, veterans of the game, chose Saw Pit Canyon for the scene of their operations and their luck was good.

Coe brought down his buck first, getting a fat two-pointer. Cooley hunted another day and was about ready to give up in disgust when he flushed a three-pointer and killed it.

S. C. Wilson and R. J. Hoover hunted over the San Jacinto Mountains for several days before they found any deer and Mr. Hoover brought down a two-point buck. Frank Loge and several others found a number of heads of deer but got no sight of a buck.

TURK SAYS MILITARY VICTORY IMPOSSIBLE. AMSTERDAM, Sept. 11.—Following closely on the statement published in Vienna September 8, in which Talaat Pasha, the Turkish grand vizier said he believed that peace would come before winter, the Neue Presse of Vienna now prints an interview with David Pasha, the Turkish Minister of Finance, who said:

A military victory in the sense that one army penetrates into the country of the other and forces the enemy to peace by crushing his military force is considered impossible and I have always considered it impossible."

SPANISH GRIP REACHES EAST.

Influenza from Europe Comes on Transports. Strange Affection is Acme of Discomfort. Government may Issue Nation-Wide Warning.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Spanish influenza, which recently ravaged the German army and later spread into France and England with such disconcerting effects on the civil population, has been brought to some of the American Atlantic Coast cities, officials here fear, but they are awaiting further investigation and developments before forming definite opinions.

In the opinion of officials, the strange infection has been brought over by persons on returning American transports. Precautionary measures are considered the best means to combat the malady, and, as the disease is a new one to American physicians, the government possibly may take the measure in hand by issuing country-wide warnings and general instructions of how to avoid the infection, if possible, and how best to meet it if it be contracted.

Spanish influenza, although short-lived and of practically no permanent serious results, is a most distressing ailment, which lasts for a few days, during which the patient suffers the acme of discomfort.

Second: Combine the control of all deliveries. A large part of the traffic on our streets consists of delivery wagons and light trucks, each carrying a fraction of a load, some of them carrying a single package for miles. Hundreds of these vehicles could be directed with and the drivers could be employed to win the war. Besides, the system would save enormously in gasoline and in time.

Of course, these ideas are not new, but are they not practical and are they not directly in line with the most important moves now being made for whipping Germany? R. C. WILSON, No. 4223 Pasadena avenue.

Poachers. OWENSMOUTH, Sept. 11.—[To the Editor of The Times.] The bean growers and orchardists in the San Fernando Valley, especially those who make a practice of pilfering beans, fruit, summer vegetables, growing plants, etc., from nearby ranches.

It would seem that the men and women who can afford to drive expensive limousines and motor cars of various types would hesitate to appropriate the property of other trespassers, but the evil has become so great as to warrant a serious hardship on, and considerable monetary loss to, ranchers in bean-growing sections of this county.

The "fanning" of bean straw piles and the pilfering of hay, grain and fruits by apparently well-to-do motorists seem to be the favorite out-of-door sport at this season of the year, and as a result many farmers and ranchers lose products valued at from $50 to $100 in a single day.

As a measure of self-protection, various farmers in the San Fernando Valley have consulted the local police authorities with a view to prosecuting the so-called "gleeners" who make a practice of invading ranches, orchards and gardens for unlawful purposes.

GEORGE W. CLEMONS. WOMEN EQUAL TO MEN IN RUSSIAN AFFAIRS. RETURNED Y.W.C.A. SECRETARY TELLS EXPERIENCES IN PETROGRAD.

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—Russian grocers. She has failed to find her final government. But when she does find it, there's no doubt about it, she will give every woman a chance to know how she feels toward any William Hale Thompson that may be running for Soviet membership.

That is the idea one gets from Clarissa Spencer. Miss Spencer, world secretary of the Y.W.C.A. and just returned from a year in Russia to attend the United States War Work Council at the Lincoln Theater, spoke today at the Chicago kindergarten institute.

"In Russia there is never talk of rights. Human rights are the common problem. And when there was enfranchisement there was no feeling that it belonged to one sex more than another," said Miss Spencer.

In Petrograd and elsewhere in Russia, she found that the government officials come to us who have struck against the Bolsheviks. They are one of jobs. They are hungry. One not have time to not take gymnastics. It gave her such an appetite. But they refuse to return to work for the Bolsheviks.

"Not long ago a girl came in and sank into one of the chairs at the Y.W.C.A. center in the capital and sighed: 'Here one can forget one is in Petrograd.' It is to help keep Russian women healthy physically and mentally so that they can aid a democratic government, is our hope.

"In Russia it is a question whether German autocrats or Allied democracy is going to win, and the women, on account of their political power, have much to say in the decision."

PAN-GERMANISM MUST GO, SAYS HUN WRITER. BERLIN PROFESSOR DECLARES THIS IS FIRST STEP TOWARD PEACE.

STOCKHOLM, Sept. 11.—As the first step toward peace Germany must renounce Pan-German ideas, is the opinion of Prof. Hans Delbrueck of the University of Berlin. Prof. Delbrueck, in an article in the magazine, Fruehling, besides saying that the Pan-Germans not only bear a portion of the responsibility for the war, but also the chief responsibility for its prolongation.

The world demands and has a right to demand that the German people give a guaranty that the Pan-German spirit, the spirit of superiority, of might, of heathendom, is not the German spirit. The best method of showing the world that the German government has definitely and irreversibly shown the Pan-German endeavors the door would be for the government to collect all of those anti-bellum Pan-German incitations and demonstrate by means of our enemies literature how greatly their conduct damaged us and helped to light the fire of this catastrophic war.

CERTIFY HENRY AS CANDIDATE.

Democratic Central Committee Men So Decide. Give Gubernatorial Nomination to Second Man. Ignore Rolph Who is Barred by the Primary Law.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Francis J. Henry was selected as the Democratic candidate for Governor at the general election in November by the Democratic State Central Committee, which late today instructed its chairman and secretary to certify Henry's name to the Secretary of State.

This action followed the defeat of a motion to pass over to the new committee, to be selected by the Democratic State convention at Sacramento next Tuesday, the tangle created when Mayor James Rolph received the highest vote for Governor on the Democratic ticket at the primary election, but failed to obtain the nomination of the committee of the party with which he is affiliated by his name can appear on any other party ticket.

After declaring that the meeting was illegal because a quorum was lacking, Sydney Van Wyck, Jr., of San Francisco, formerly Democratic candidate for Governor, walked out of the room in which the meeting was being held. Committee members present said he carried with him more than a score of proxies.

THE RESOLUTION. The resolution passed by the committee today follows: Whereas, the situation has arisen whereby it will be necessary to resort to the courts for decision as to the result of the recent primary election of candidates for Governor of the State of California upon the Democratic ticket, and in the event that no election has been made, it may be held to be the duty of the committee to select a candidate for that office; and

Whereas, Francis J. Henry, received in the recent primary election the highest vote cast for a candidate for that office registered as affiliated with the Democratic party.

"Now, therefore, be it resolved, that Francis J. Henry be and is hereby selected as the candidate of the Democratic party for the office of Governor of the State of California, to be voted on at the ensuing November election, and that the chairman and secretary of this committee be and they are hereby directed to certify his nomination to the Secretary of State accordingly."

W. W. Bedford of San Francisco led the futile movement to postpone action until the new committee should direct the gubernatorial campaign, is named by the State convention. O. K. Cushing, chairman of the present committee, and Lorin E. Handley of Los Angeles opposed Bedford's motion on the ground that the new committee would not have time to act within the time limit set by law.

VAN WYCK BOLTS. Handley also led the opposition to Van Wyck's attempt to stop action here to change of no quorum was present. He read a letter soliciting proxies which he said Van Wyck had sent to members of the Democratic committee, and demanded that Van Wyck submit the proxies he held to the secretary.

"You can count me absent," said Van Wyck, after renewing his protest against the holding of the meeting, and walked from the room. Mrs. Francis A. Head, who was present in no official capacity, it was said, created a sensation at the point when she shouted:

"That man should be arrested for obstructing these proxies under false pretenses."

Resolutions endorsing the wartime administration of President Wilson and the actions of United States Senator James D. Phelan were passed.

TEST CASE FILED. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Mandamus proceedings to compel Secretary of State Frank H. Rogers, Assembly candidate here, to place the name of Frank H. Rogers on the November ballot, were started in the State Supreme Court here today and the case will serve as a test of the right of Mayor James Rolph to press his opponent's Democratic nomination for Governor despite a primary law provision that the counting of the day's receipts of his failure to secure the nomination of his own party, the Republican.

The case of Rogers involves the same provision. The Democratic State Central Committee at its meeting today said Democratic leaders were expected to name as the gubernatorial candidate Francis J. Henry, who ran second to Rolph.

That is the idea one gets from Clarissa Spencer. Miss Spencer, world secretary of the Y.W.C.A. and just returned from a year in Russia to attend the United States War Work Council at the Lincoln Theater, spoke today at the Chicago kindergarten institute.

"In Russia there is never talk of rights. Human rights are the common problem. And when there was enfranchisement there was no feeling that it belonged to one sex more than another," said Miss Spencer.

In Petrograd and elsewhere in Russia, she found that the government officials come to us who have struck against the Bolsheviks. They are one of jobs. They are hungry. One not have time to not take gymnastics. It gave her such an appetite. But they refuse to return to work for the Bolsheviks.

"Not long ago a girl came in and sank into one of the chairs at the Y.W.C.A. center in the capital and sighed: 'Here one can forget one is in Petrograd.' It is to help keep Russian women healthy physically and mentally so that they can aid a democratic government, is our hope.

"In Russia it is a question whether German autocrats or Allied democracy is going to win, and the women, on account of their political power, have much to say in the decision."

PAN-GERMANISM MUST GO, SAYS HUN WRITER. BERLIN PROFESSOR DECLARES THIS IS FIRST STEP TOWARD PEACE.

STOCKHOLM, Sept. 11.—As the first step toward peace Germany must renounce Pan-German ideas, is the opinion of Prof. Hans Delbrueck of the University of Berlin. Prof. Delbrueck, in an article in the magazine, Fruehling, besides saying that the Pan-Germans not only bear a portion of the responsibility for the war, but also the chief responsibility for its prolongation.

The world demands and has a right to demand that the German people give a guaranty that the Pan-German spirit, the spirit of superiority, of might, of heathendom, is not the German spirit. The best method of showing the world that the German government has definitely and irreversibly shown the Pan-German endeavors the door would be for the government to collect all of those anti-bellum Pan-German incitations and demonstrate by means of our enemies literature how greatly their conduct damaged us and helped to light the fire of this catastrophic war.

SUNDAY MUST STAY CLOSED. Ordinance to Remain on the Books Till People Take a "Straw Vote."

In full force, without amendment, the Sunday-closing ordinance is to remain on the books until after the November 11. This decision was reached yesterday by the City Council in secret session with City Attorney Stephens.

The Council decided to place upon the November election this raw-vote proposition: "Shall the City Council adopt a Sunday-closing ordinance?" The City Attorney's reason for suggesting that the people vote upon this question rather than upon an ordinance is that, if an ordinance should be adopted by popular vote, it could not be amended except at a future election, while an ordinance adopted by the Council may be amended as often as the people can convene that body that it should be subjected to modification.

REVOLUTION ACTIVITY PREVAILS IN CROATIA.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.) AMSTERDAM, Sept. 11.—Jugo-Slav agitation and revolutionary activity are so prevalent in Croatia that, if the situation does not soon change, a catastrophe must be feared, according to the Vienna Reichspost. The state and communal agencies in so far as they are in the hands of the Serbo-Croat are being exploited by them without reserve, the newspaper declares, the schools being especially used for spreading political propaganda. The district authorities and the officials of the law courts, it is added, no longer dare to perform their official duties.

TRANSFER MAJ. COPP TO CAMP SHERIDAN.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.) WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—Maj. A. J. Copp of Los Angeles, who has been detailed to the Vienna Advance's office here, was today sent to Camp Sheridan in Alabama to be judge advocate for the camp. He made the change so suddenly that all plans for bringing his family to Washington had to be changed at once. This transfer may lead to later services overseas, and it is probable the major's family will remain in Los Angeles.

Style Hints in Autumn Footwear

WITH the first breath of Autumn your eyes naturally wander toward good looking shoes.

Oxfords will be unusually fashionable this Fall and Winter, the dark shades of brown are in the height of popular favor, while patent and black leathers are always in good taste.

Walk-Over leathers and patterns conform to the wishes of our government and always will, regardless of these restrictions our styles for Autumn are as attractive and as distinctive as any we have ever shown.

Make it a point to see our display.

PRACTICAL NOTE RULES

UNITED FASHION SHOW.

Choice Range of Habillments Seen, but Extravagance is Discouraged.

BY OLIVE GRAY.

THE United Fashion Show, opening today, and continuing until tomorrow night, presents this season a less extravagant display than heretofore, the exhibitions being confined to practical garments and things for use rather than for mere expenditure.

Madame la Mode seems to have restrained her imagination, presenting for choice a range of comfortable habiliments without absurdities. Her chosen fabrics are of the kind which afford beauty and usefulness, rather than the ephemeral and exaggerated, as has sometimes been the case heretofore.

Few of the stores are having fashion promenades; and the opening will take place in the morning instead of at night. The windows are beautiful and interesting and will doubtless attract large crowds.

Following are some of the displays:

Blackstone's Living Models.

The promenade of living models will take place as usual at Blackstone's, this event having become an integral part of the Fashion Show there. Headed by Miss Nordskog, a number of models will display the season's latest garb in the salons from 10 to 12 a.m. and from 2 to 4 p.m. today and tomorrow. The windows at Blackstone's are handsomely arranged, dahlias in Autumn shades harmonizing with the new garments and merchandise. An assortment of handsome new beaded bags, rich laces and bands, fringes and other popular trimmings is noticeably fine.

Hamburger's Display.

Wishbones used as drapery stand! Wishbones so huge as to stir the imagination. What bird so great as to have harbored in his breast a wishbone of this size? What wish can one make adequate to its apparent strength? As we look, each may breathe a wish nearest to his heart. Egypt is revived in one scene at Hamburger's. Gilded lattices, quaint balconies, hinting of the influence of the Moors; broad marble stairways and the garments which might appear in such surroundings are there. Autumn in Italy is elsewhere portrayed. Against a tropically brilliant background a sear view is given, with cat tails and pampas grasses, marsh flowers and other growths. The corner case at Eighth and Broadway is devoted to picturing the Red Cross, "Mother of the World."

At the Vogue Shop.

Pink chrysanthemums are used to enhance the merchandise in the windows at the Vogue Shop. Conspicuous among the garments shown are those of white velvet—an evening gown and a dinner dress, each presenting the salient features of the season's mode. A lovely afternoon dress in battleship gray is trimmed with the new ostrich feather fringes. Suits, coats, dress accessories and millinery are also exhibited in these windows.

Luxury at the Unique.

Two large drawing-room lamps are the decorative keynote in the window of the Unique, where the interior of a handsome home is shown. The garments for which the Unique is famed are exemplified there. Hixon models predominate, since they are exclusive to this house. A collection of rare furs from Liebes adds a luxurious note.

At Harris & Frank's.

Fall flowers interspersed among excellent examples of the garments carried exclusively by Harris & Frank form a worthy showing at that place, which, too, has the interior of a handsome home in its window. The garments for which the Unique is famed are exemplified there. Hixon models predominate, since they are exclusive to this house. A collection of rare furs from Liebes adds a luxurious note.

The Fifth-street Store.

Camouflage! The sky line of a battlefield, seen at night, is the camouflage which forms the background at the Fifth-street Store. Bursting bombs, scurrying airplanes, "tauties" as the war is always called, are the background of what we do and what we purchase, as the war furnishes the reason for the mode and materials, so it is presented in the Fifth-street windows. The garments shown are not camouflaged, but are most practical and pretty.

The Ville de Paris.

Although no special color scheme has been selected for the garments at the Ville de Paris, the windows are characterized by rare good taste in decoration, choosing the most desirable merchandise for display. The season's handiwork garments, accessories of dress, gloves, yardage goods, millinery and accessories, silks, are displayed. One window houses the lovely lingerie and negligees for which the Ville is noted.

Myer Siegel & Co.

The windows of Myer Siegel & Co. are devoted to an exhibition of the garments, practical and at the same time handsome, for which the famous house is noted. Fur-trimmed suits, wraps and coats, frocks and dresses, each embodying the latest of fashion's features, are here interspersed with flowers and vines tastefully disposed. Negligees, of which this store always has a variety, lingerie and pre-eminent wearables for young people, for girls and juniors, here are shown.

Robinson's Presentation.

Chaste and elegant is the presentation of merchandise in the windows at Robinson's. The richness of the garments, fabrics and accessories, such as to need no enhancement, and the arrangement leaves nothing to be desired. The presentation of the high note in fashion's autumnal symphony, around both in yardage and in more wonderful accessories, is again in great demand—usual accessories of dress, trimmings and the many articles which go toward the completion of a season's wardrobe, are displayed.

The Windows at Coulter's.

The most conspicuous window at Coulter's is the one on Seventh street, wherein are shown Duff-Gordon afternoon frocks, street suits and examples of the silks for which the house is noted. The corner window is devoted to a showing of fabric and accessories in French blue and pink, and to an exquisite display of French millinery. A window on Olive street is devoted to children's sportswear, and another on the afternoon street indoors. A second window here is given to afternoon dresses for juniors, and the south window presents a boudoir setting to enhance the beauty of negligees and lingerie.

Bullock's Settings.

The entire Broadway frontage at Bullock's is beautified by a painted background in panelings, presenting autumn scenes. Framed in antique gold moldings, with Empire wreaths, and so veiled as to give atmosphere, these panels are most artistic. Autumn foliage, tree trunks and limbs covered with moss, further enhance the meretricious which in one section consists of children's garments, in another of the newest weaves in fabrics, and elsewhere of furs. In the fur section, pine branches, pine needles on the ground and other natural forest features seem to simulate the real habitat of the fur-bearing animals. An indoor scene is the setting for afternoon and evening gowns.

Ganster's Special Showings.

Bleu diable bleu, a color first recognized by Ganster, is shown in broadcloths. Chasseur green chameaux forms another special showing in the windows of the Angel Silk Shop. Meretricious autumnal panels are shown, and as unflatteringly as in seasons heretofore, freshly cut California flowers are decoratively used.

Newcomb's Corset Shop.

One never realizes how artistically corsets may be arranged, not what effects may be achieved by corset-coloring, until seeing Newcomb's windows. Braiser and other lingerie are also exhibited at Newcomb's Corset Shop.

Hale's Special Sale.

This house is devoting no particular space to the Fashion Show, having launched a special sale, which is occupying attention and so buying all that it was deemed best not to interrupt it.

The New Paris Store.

The merchandise such as the New Paris is famed for—ready-to-wear, millinery, accessories—is shown to advantage in the broad window panes, which have been newly carpeted and which are bedecked with the flowers of the scarlet eucalyptus, tastefully arranged to lend an autumn air.

The Palais de Modes.

The handsome background, paneled artistically after the French Renaissance manner, needs no enhancement; the Palais de Modes has sought little of extraneous adornment for its windows. Practical garments, which are a specialty with this house, are tastefully exhibited, bouquets of chrysanthemums and dahlias serving to furnish the festive note to the autumn display in the windows.

Harry Pink & Co.

The newest in garments, ready for midday's wear, is what the Fashion Show means at Harry Pink's. The showing in the windows comprises the latest models in suits and frocks in afternoon frocks and gowns for evening. Conservative in cut, practical in materials, these garments, each garment is distinctive and in the best of taste.

Sweden Fall Garments.

The windows and the spacious arcade of Sweden exhibit a most interesting grouping of new fall garments, among which are noticeable a lovely gown of velvet, in navy blue, and a broadcloth suit in a dainty ecru shade. One window showing is in taupe, one in shades of brown, and one is devoted to a showing of the new Algerian red.

Broadway Department Store.

A novel effect is gained by means of tasseled floors throughout the windows of the Broadway Department Store. In each section the color scheme is chosen with the merchandise. Mulberry and gold are combined in one Broadway frontage, the furnishings being of gold here, and gold and mulberry in the garments shown. Shades of blue, dark and light elsewhere are selected. One window is in pink and rose; black and white is in another; silver and white appear elsewhere. Purple and lavender greens and blues, tones of brown, are other color balances in tones of ivory and ivory-colored window boxes are novel decorative motifs.

New York Cloak and Suit House.

That the dahlia is queen of the autumnal season one cannot doubt after visiting the New York Store. A veritable dahlia show is there. The windows are filled with many times in the mirrored walls of the maze of wondrous arcades, dahlia stand in stately groups along the first floor salons, dahlias abound each other on the spacious mezzanine. The dahlia, the popular fall fall, appear in many garments, too.

Jacoby Brothers.

The center window at Jacoby's presents an Algerian scene, with the Moorish influence shown in settings and the oriental effect in furnishings and floor rugs. Algeria, the new red which seems to hold the warmth of the African deserts, in its brownish depths, is shown in coats, suits and dresses, many of them composed of suede velours, so popular this season. "Made in the U.S.A." is the slogan of Jacoby's.

Obrikat-Meyer Fur Company.

In the windows of the Obrikat-Meyer Fur Company, on Hill street, are shown the latest in fur-trimmed garments, with Russian sable collar. Nothing and in more wonderful accessories, a garment could be imagined, combining as it does, the fur-trimmed supremacy of the quality in fur, which this house unflatteringly attains.

Colburn's Showing.

Chinchillas, of which Colburn's have a rare and complete collection, are prominently shown in the windows of this house. Chinchillas and sables, mounted, and in the pelt, as well as made up in scarves, showing the showing in one window.

G. D. Davidson Company.

The windows of the G. D. Davidson Company are resplendent with diamond pieces of rare workmanship, and contain an especial display of wrist watches for soldiers and ladies. Pastel shades of satin lilies and flowers, form the draperies and appear throughout the window spaces, like rainbows softly veiled in mist. Baby sinners in shades to correspond, grow in a border around the windows. Rare objects of art imported from France and Italy, are artistically disposed.

Montgomery Bros.

Shades of pastel pink here are replete with jewelry beauty. Diamonds, watches, personal ornaments in gold and silver, are shown in a display of the showing here. Hand-some draperies, floor-mats and
